RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - IT specialists with a graduate degree in computer science, engineering or a related field could easily snag a job with the Office and Management and Budget (OMB).

Federaltimes.com reports that OMB says it has a "critical" and immediate need for the experts.

The jobs are limited to two years but could be extended, with salaries starting at $63,000. The upper end of the salary scale is $139,000.

The newspaper says OMB will take applications through today "or until 150 acceptable applications are received."
