Former Postal Worker Pled Guilty To Stealing Mail

By Administrator
Wednesday, 14 October 2020 09:06 -

A Havelock man pleaded guilty to stealingU.S. mail.

William E. Lundy, Sr., 41, worked as a clerk in the Trenton Post Office. From June 2019 through January 2020, Lundy rifled through the outgoing and incoming mail and stole mail that contained cash, personal checks and gift cards. Based upon customer complaints, the Postal Service conducted an investigation and found 36 first class envelopes in Lundy's car. 32 victims were identified, resulting in a loss of $1,265. Lundy voluntarily resigned.

Robert J. Higdon, Jr., U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina made the announcement after U.S. Magistrate Judge Robert Jones accepted the plea. The United States Postal Service, Office of Inspector General is investigating the case and Assistant U.S. Attorney Susan Menzer is prosecuting the case.

U.S District Judge Louise W. Flanagan will sentence Lundy during the February 2021 term of court. The maximum penalties are five years' imprisonment and a $250,000. Restitution is mandatory.