

{audio}files/preroll.mp3;files/Shows/2011/sgrtboardman121911.mp3{/audio}

Dr. Barry Boardman, chief economist for the General Assembly's Fiscal Affairs office says last spring's revenue projections for the 2011-2012 fiscal year are close to actual collections. Through November, revenues are about $100 million ahead. It's no big Christmas bonus but better than being behind.