

Ann Goodnight and Robert "Chip" Andrews Appointed to NC State Board of Trustees

By Administrator

Tuesday, 23 June 2015 05:38 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Two Wake County residents will be joining the governing board of NC State University. Their terms are for four years and begin July 1.

Ann Goodnight is Director of Community Relations at SAS and a community volunteer. She is completing her eighth year of service on the UNC Board of Governors as a member of the Educational Planning, Policies, Programs, and Public Affairs Committee.

Robert "Chip" Andrews III is the former Chairman and CEO for the FMI Corporation in Raleigh. He joined the company in 1967 after graduating from NC State with a degree in Economics. During his time with the company, he held leadership roles from Director of Consulting, President, and Chairman and CEO. He has served on various boards for NC State University, including Board of Visitors and Poole College of Management Board of Advisors.

The role of the trustee