

Fayetteville State University Board of Trustees Gains New Members

By Administrator

Wednesday, 29 July 2015 05:06 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) -Two North Carolina entrepreneurs will join the board of trustees at Fayetteville State University.

Bridget Chisholm of Guilford County is the President, CEO, and Founder of BWC Consulting, LLC. She founded the company in 2002 and it was formed to provide public and private sectors advice, analysis and in-residence services in the areas of strategy, finance, brand management, deal valuation, mergers, and franchising. Currently the company operates out of two locations. Clients include colleges and universities, municipalities, and developers

The second appointee is Rajan Shamdasani of Cumberland County. Shamdasani is the Founder of American Uniform Sales, Inc. in Fayetteville. Additionally, he is also involved in the real estate development business in the Fayetteville area as well as other parts of North Carolina and in Texas. He is also the Chair of Center for Entrepreneurship at Fayetteville State University and Member of Dean's Advisory Board at Fayetteville State University.