RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - The North Carolina Textbook Commission will meet next week to review the process and procedures for textbook evaluation and adoption.

The meeting comes ahead of a scheduled presentation before the March Board of Education meeting, at which the the draft 2016 Invitation for health and social studies will be reviewed.

The meeting will take place in downtown Raleigh but will also be audio-streamed. Visit ncpublicschools.org for a link to the stream.
