

Report Finds Fragmentation, Overlap, or Duplication In 12 Areas of Government Activity

By Administrator

Monday, 20 April 2015 05:41 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - A new federal watchdog report says there are a dozen areas of problems with duplicative efforts within the federal government, and another dozen more opportunities to avoid costs or enhance federal revenues.

The 2015 annual report comes from the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO.)

GAO cites several examples on its website, where the full report can also be found.

Consumer Product Safety Oversight
Fragmentation

Non-Emergency Medical Transportation
Overlap

EPA's and FDA's Lab Inspections
Duplication

Strategic Petroleum Reserve
Cost Savings

Tax Policies and Enforcement
Revenue Enhancement