RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Audit results of two North Carolina counties' Clerk of Superior Court offices show the same results, according to State Auditor Beth Wood's office.

Financial related audits of Currituck and Onslow counties' Clerk of Superior Court operations show "an instance of noncompliance and a deficiency in internal control that is considered reportable under Government Auditing Standards.

The report summary continued: "The Clerk's Office failed to compel the filing of inventories for estates in accordance with state law, resulting in a loss or delay in the collection of court costs and fees."
