RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - The N.C. Association of County Attorneys and the N.C. Association of Social Services Attorneys begin their summer conference today in Wrightsville Beach.

The conference is hosted by the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners.

Changes to North Carolina's election law are among the topics to be discussed. Ted Fitzgerald of the state Board of Elections will address social services attorneys on Thursday.

Conference agendas can be found at <http://www.ncacc.org/index.aspx?NID=508>
