

NC Voter ID Law On Agenda For Black Elected Municipal Officials Conference

By Administrator
Friday, 31 July 2015 05:35 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - When black elected officials representing North Carolina's cities and towns converge on Winston-Salem for their annual conference, the Friday agenda begins with a look at North Carolina's election reform law.

The group is an affiliate of the NC League of Municipalities. This year's conference is being held in Winston-Salem from July 30 through August 1.

The agenda:

Friday, July 31st

8:00 am Sponsors Set Up - Hearn Foyer

9:00 am Exhibit Hall Opens (Meet & Greet)

Breakfast On Your Own At Embassy Suites

9:30 am–11:00 am

Voter ID - Understanding the NC Voter ID Law

11:15 am–12:00 pm

Ethics & Politics -The Do's and Don'ts

12:15 pm-1:45 pm

Scholarship Luncheon -

2:00 pm - 2:30 pm

Sponsor Spotlight

2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Explore Winston-Salem Activities & Tours

2:45 pm - 3:30 pm

Social Media Training

6:00 pm - 10:00 pm

White Party - Brooks Town Inn

(Must Have on White For Admission)

8:00 pm-11:00 pm

Hospitality Suite (Members and Guests Welcome)

Saturday, August 1st

8:00 am - 8:45 am

Breakfast On Your Own at Embassy Suites

9:00 am-10:30 am

NC Voter ID Law On Agenda For Black Elected Municipal Officials Conference

By Administrator
Friday, 31 July 2015 05:35 -

Legislative Update -

10:45 am–11:45 am

Putting Veterans to Work

How Municipalities Can Support Job Initiatives - Michael Naylor

12:00 pm - 1:45 pm Community Leaders Recognition Luncheon

6:30 pm-11:00 pm Closing Dinner/Live Band (Casual Attire)