RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Municipal officials from across North Carolina will converge on Winston-Salem in October for what is deemed by the host group as its largest event of the year.

Information posted on the website of the North Carolina League of Municipalities says the meeting will be held October 10 through 13 at the Twin City Quarter-Benton Convention Center.

Among the topics to be discussed:

- pros and cons of body cams
- health care regulations and issues
- how cities and towns cope with falling revenues and growing demands

The full schedule can be found at nclm.org.
