

Wilmington Set as Location For Two TV Series Awarded State Grants

By Administrator

Friday, 12 February 2016 06:53 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Nearly $14 million in grants are available to two new television series that have committed to Wilmington as their shooting locations.

SYNC, a publication of the state Commerce Department, reports that production will begin within two months on "Good Behavior" and "Six."

"Good Behavior" will air on TNT. The production is eligible for up to $6,603,003 in grants.

"Six" is eligible for up to $7,215,671 in grants.

The North Carolina Film and Entertainment Grant provides financial assistance to attract productions that will stimulate economic activity and create jobs in the state. Companies receive no money up front and must meet direct in-state spending requirements to qualify for grant funds.