

Three New Appointments To Chiropractic Examiners Board

By Administrator

Tuesday, 24 February 2015 06:34 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - The board that regulates the practice of chiropractic in North Carolina will seat three new members for three-year terms.

The appointments to the North Carolina Board of Chiropractic Examiners are:

-- Dr. Randy Schilsky (Onslow County) - Schilsky is the president and CEO of the Schilsky Chiropractic Center in Jacksonville.

--Dr. Ray Armstrong (Scotland County)- Armstrong is a chiropractor at the Laurinburg Chiropractic Center.

-- Jacqueline Hobbs (Perquimans County)- Hobbs is the proprietor of the Beechtree Inn.