

Pro-Bond Advertising Hits Airwaves Ahead of Primary Election

By Administrator

Wednesday, 03 February 2016 05:50 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Advertising promoting the $2 billion infrastructure bond is now running on television, according to WRAL.

The spot touts benefits of the infrastructure bond, which if passed, would fund facilities across the state.

Voters will give a thumbs up or thumbs down to the package March 15 when it appears on the statewide primary ballot.

A group has organized against the bond at againstthebond.com.