

Raleigh Businessman Blasts HB2 At DNC

By Administrator

Tuesday, 26 July 2016 15:14 -

Raleigh entrepreneur Jesse Lipson took the stage at the Democratic National Convention and spoke against the controversial North Carolina LGBT law. He said House Bill 2 is driving away business and hurting the entire country's reputation.

He gave a four-minute speech in prime time during during a segment of the convention titled "Ensuring Equality."

Lipson

tried to tie presidential Donald Trump to

HB2

and praised Hillary Clinton's efforts to help start-up companies.