

McCrary Concedes Governor's Race To Attorney General Roy Cooper

By Administrator

Monday, 05 December 2016 12:13 - Last Updated Monday, 05 December 2016 12:20

Governor Pat McCrary has conceded the gubernatorial race to Attorney General Roy Cooper.

The governor made the announcement via a video mailed to the new media. In it McCrary listed the accomplishments of his administration including paying off billion dollars of debt as well passing the $2 billion bond issue earlier this year.

McCrary

ended the video asking for prayers for Roy Cooper as he assumes the state's governorship.