John Adcock has been appointed to fill the seat of Rep. Linda Hunt Williams in NC House District 37. Rep. Hunt Williams announced her retirement recently and the House District 37 Executive Committee met and unanimously selected Adcock to fill her unexpired term. "We are so excited to have selected John Adcock as the new representative for HD 37," said Charles Hellwig, Chairman of the Wake County Republican Party. "John will be a fantastic member of the General Assembly and serve his constituents well. The choice was easy for us." Adcock was already running to replace Rep. Hunt Williams, who had announced her retirement earlier this year. He is a father with two children in the public school system, a small business owner, and a longtime active leader in his community. "It is an honor to have the opportunity to serve this community and our state," said John Adcock. "In the coming weeks, there is critical work to be done to help those impacted by Hurricane Florence begin the process of putting their lives back together," Adcock continued. "Putting the priorities of our community before politics will underscore my service and I look forward to hearing your priorities and serving you," said Adcock.

"We couldn't have picked a better person to fill this seat," Hellwig continued, "and we're looking forward to his election in November as well!"
