

State budget, 'letter-gate' , utilities merger and Southern Baptists on agenda

By
Thursday, 21 June 2012 18:27 -

{audio}files/preroll.mp3;files/Shows/2012/wnr062212.mp3{/audio}

The Weekly News Review panel of Tim Funk of the Charlotte Observer, Rick Martinez of WPTF News and host Barlow Herget look at the $2.2 billion budget bill, no compensation for eugenics victims, and a badly edited DOT letter to the General Assembly that's caused a row. Also under review are the big utility merger and its impact on wholesale users and Southern Baptists electing their first African American convention president.