

Staff salaries, ACT scores make news this week

By

Friday, 23 August 2013 13:21 -

Governor McCrory's young, ex-campaign staffers big state salary increases make headlines along with the state's lowest in the nation ACT test scores. Pat Gannon of The Insider joins host Barlow Herget to review those stories and which Republicans are not going to challenge U.S. Senator Kay Hagan in 2014. The Governor wins praises for signing the legislature's bill to make hospital costs more transparent.

{audio}files/preroll.mp3;files/Shows/2013/Weekly News In Review/wnr082313.mp3{/audio}