

{audio}files/preroll.mp3;files/News_Audio/2012/sgrtconti092412.mp3{/audio}

NC Transportation Secretary Gene Conti tells host Barlow Herget that the "good roads" state is in better shape than most of its neighbors and explains how Governor Perdue removed as never before politics from DOT highway decisions. He sees more ridership for mass transit and rail traffic in future and details list of projects and jobs that the federal stimulus financed.