The newly formed Carolina Teachers Alliance is holding a Region 4 “Meet & Greet” this Saturday 5/15/21 in Fayetteville from 10:30 am to 1pm. The event will be held at Mazarick Park 1, Shelter 1, 1612 Belvedere Avenue, Fayetteville, NC, 28305, and is for prospective and existing members. Free donuts and coffee will be served, and a surprise item will be raffled!

Carolina Teachers Alliance is nonprofit trade association, whose mission is to be the voice of Carolina educators that empowers members to provide the highest quality, unbiased and achievement-driven education to all children. Membership classifications, pricing, benefits, and merchandise can be viewed at their website carolinateachers.org. All new school staff members receive a free T-shirt with their membership.

“It will be a fun outdoor event with food, drinks, music, games, a raffle, and the opportunity to learn more about Carolina Teachers Alliance and what we do. Also, volunteers who pick up a bag of school kits to deliver to local schools will receive a free T-shirt and $5 off membership dues.” Said President, Amy Marshall.

“I started Carolina Teachers Alliance in part to provide North Carolina teachers an alternative organization. We are half the cost of the NCAE for professional members. All our school staff, including retired, are automatically covered under our robust educator professional liability/legal plan. We also have an amazing nationwide corporate discount program that covers everything from fast food to Disney. We also offer free and reduced-price professional development and quarterly grants for educators.” Said Marshall.
