

Election money held up, candidates filing and not filing, and redistricting lawsuit make news this week

By
Sunday, 12 February 2012 15:21 -

{audio}files/preroll.mp3;files/Shows/2012/021012_Weekly_News_Review.mp3{/audio}

The Weekly News Review panel of Gary Robertson of the AP, Mike Davis of WPTF News and host Barlow Herget review the impasse over state matching funds to pay for election costs, who's running for governor and who's not running for reelection, and the redistricting lawsuit. The group also looks at the upcoming legislative session and why it's needed.