

Presidential campaigns turn to ground game, Dalton offers economic plan, and UNC-CH can't stay out of

By

Friday, 14 September 2012 07:00 -

{audio}files/preroll.mp3;files/Shows/2012/wnr091412.mp3{/audio}

Host Barlow Herget turns to Patrick Gannon of the Wilmington Star-News and WPTF News' Bruce Ferrell for help in looking back on the week's big stories including the presidential campaign in NC, Lt. Gov. Walter Dalton's plan to restart the economy, UNC-CH's latest scandal (this one involves sex!), and the State Board of Election's response to a group looking for voter fraud. Listen in.