Jim Morrill of the Charlotte Observer joins host Barlow Herget to review the week's news, and the pair look at the results of the Tea Party Republicans' failure to get their way in Congress but the damage they inflicted on the economy and their party. The Review also looks at the hearing this week in NC Supreme Court over funding for pre-K program, and Governor McCrory's continuing appearance in the media spotlight. AG Roy Cooper also drew criticism for some public endorsements such as his endorsement of gay marriage, which could cause him problems when he has to defend the Amendment that bans such marriages.
